Men's, Women's and Children's!

About fifty Umbrellas 24 and 26 inch sizes, having a cover of Gloria Silk, which is a fine quality of twilled cotton, absolutely fast black, mounted on paragon frames, seven ribs, steel rods, handles are natural sticks, box wood, princess style, nickel and gun metal mountings. These are $1.25 and $1.50 values and they are the best Umbrella we ever offered for Saturday

98c Each.

$3.25, 3.50 and 3.98 values,
$1.98 Each.

These are taken from our regular stock and not one of them sold for less than $3.25. They have a beautifully fine quality of cover, handles on congo wood, decorated with real ivory and gold.

$6.50 and 6.98 values, $3.98.

That we have too many high priced Umbrellas is the reason for such big cuts in the price. Very pretty quality silk covers with sterling silver and pearl, gold and pearl and silver and real ivory combinations adorning the handles and they are only about half price.

The above prices are for Saturday only and no exchanges or returns can be allowed.

The Clown's Love Story, A Night in Dreamland, Monte Cristo and a popular song is the offering of the Theatatorium to-day. Compare it with any bill, anywhere, any time.

Plumbers! There will be a regular meeting of Local No. 95, in Painters' hall, Friday evening, April 3, 1908. Each and every member, try and be present, as there is business of the utmost importance to transact. George W. Quinn, Secretary.

A proposition is on foot in Montpelier to introduce the solid session in the high school, the same as in Barre. The scholars of the school have already voted in favor of the idea, and the parents are now being canvassed. In Barre there is a growing sentiment against the continuance of the system.

Further price punctured merchandise, prices decreasing, crowds increasing—is the announcement made in to-day's issue by A. A. Smith & Brother. They add that unless you are temptation proof not to look at the prices they are making on their stock of shoes, clothing, hats, shirts, underwear, gloves, hosiery, jewelry, etc. You cannot but realize that profit is but secondary in this great reduction sale, the object being more business. Lookers as welcome as buyers.

No more dramatic story has ever been told than that of Monte Cristo. The whole tale is unfolded in moving pictures, and given in a way that all can understand. It is a treat to sit in the comfortable Theatatorium and watch the scenes in the life of this novel hero.

Many people were in attendance all day yesterday when the picture was shown, and they were unanimous in their opinion that it was one of the best they had ever seen. This is abundant praise for the picture, considering the large number of excellent views that have been presented at this little theater in the past. Two other pictures are attracting attention. "The Clown's Love Story," and "A Night in Dreamland." The audience has not a dull moment at the Theatatorium. This excellent bill continues to-day.

W. N. Turner moved his household goods yesterday to the farm in Brainard, where he recently purchased.

The Barre Hospital Aid association will meet in the city council rooms Friday afternoon, April 3, at 2 o'clock.

The Democratic clubs of wards one, two and three held a sugar party yesterday afternoon at Jesse Pratt's sugar orchard on the East hill.

Con Sullivan left yesterday for New York and will take passage Friday for a visit at his former home in Ireland, where he has several relatives.

Charles A. Chapman of Ferrisburgh returned to-day to his home after a visit at Goddard seminary yesterday. Mr. Chapman is one of the trustees of the school.

Alexander Wood, who has been visiting friends in the city, leaves to-night for his home in Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. Wood was formerly in the granite business in Barre.

The annual general meeting of the Barre Rangers foot ball club will be held in the pavilion on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Business, election of officers and any other proper business. J. Will, president.

Miss Mamie McKenzie entertained a party of friends at her home on Merchant street last evening in honor of Miss M. F. Reid of Rutland, who is visiting her. Games were the order of the evening and a light collation was served.

The deputy sheriffs of two counties, Lamoille and Washington, were stirred up yesterday afternoon over the report that three suspicious-looking men were making from Waterbury to Montpelier. Believing that the men might be part of the gang who burglarized the Stowe post-office earlier in the week, the officers went after them. When rounded up the three men were found to be tramps, who said they were visiting their way to Barre for "work." They were not molested. The government offers $250 and the town of Stowe $100 for arrest of the robbers.

Last evening's service was a continuation of the services of the last few evenings at the holiness revival services being held in the Worthen hall. These have now been going on for one week, and much has already been accomplished. They will continue for another week, at least. Probably on Friday evening, tomorrow, there will be no service, as the hall was previously engaged for that evening by other parties. But to-night and Saturday there will be services at 7 o'clock, and all are invited. Rev. R. S. Taylor has been expected to arrive every day, but has undoubtedly been detained for some good purpose. The services are undenominational and the hall is situated in the Worthen block at the corner of Keith avenue and North Main street.

For sale—A parlor set, a parlor table, reception-room furniture, bedroom set and dishes. Inquire Mrs. Thomas Brady, 20 Perry street.

The annual general meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held at its club house on Saturday, April 4. All members are requested to attend. James W. Gauld, secretary.

About forty of the friends of Dean Adams came to his home at 79 South Main street last evening and gave him a surprise party. Games and music furnished entertainment for the little folks throughout the evening. Refreshments of cocoa and cake were served.
